

Hybrid Event Insurance

A single policy that protects hybrid events from both physical and virtual threats that could lead to the cancellation, abandonment, interruption, postponement, relocation, or curtailment.

A successful hybrid event is completely reliant on the performance of technology and physical infrastructure running properly. One failure with these twin exposures can be financially crippling for the organisers. Our hybrid event solution offers a clear, tailored cover for the wide range of risks associated with hosting hybrid events.

What we offer

Specialist business interruption cover for the sports, entertainment and trade show industries primarily focussed on the interest of the event organiser, hospitality, media companies, broadcasters, sponsors, music promoters, advertisers, advertising agencies, film production companies and promotion agencies.
